

4MOST Holdings, LLC, an Affiliate of Coalition America, Inc., Completes Purchase of Assets of Physician Services, LC

Atlanta, Georgia – April 29, 2011. 4MOST Holdings, LLC, an affiliate of Coalition America, Inc. (CAI), announced today they have acquired the assets of Physician Services, LC, which includes 4MOST Dental Network, 4MOST Health Network, and 4COMP Network. The addition of these contracts, along with the Ohio Preferred Provider Network and National Preferred Provider Network contracts, will position CAI to provide a competitive product offering on a primary network basis for Coalition America clients in the WV, OH, and KY regions.

Mollie Gordon Brown, president of Coalition America, says “Our latest transaction is in keeping with Coalition America’s long time commitment to excellence, and has positioned us to offer greater savings to our clients in the future.”

“This recent acquisition further illustrates the continued commitment to all of our clients to grow and expand our products and services. The addition of these very well respected West Virginia providers enhances our combined product offering for primary and supplemental networks,” added Tina Ellex, chief operating officer of Coalition America.

“For over a decade, 4MOST has provided superior service and value to our agents, carriers, third party administrators, employers, and healthcare providers,” says John Fischer, president of Physicians Services, LC. “With Coalition America’s acquisition of the 4MOST networks and their continued utilization of the 4MOST brand, CAI will provide our clients with a seamless level of service expected in our market, but also connectivity to a national provider network with enhanced cost containment products and services.”
